(ii) Case No. 127/83—S/Shri Davinder Singh, Jagmohan Singh, Balbir Singh, Mohinder Singh, Satya Pal, Gurdev Singh, Badri Lal and Suresh Kumar versus M/s Ranger Breweries, Mehatpur, District Una.

(iii) Case No. 134/83—Jung Bahadur versus M/s Ranger Breweries, Mehatpur, District Una.

Before the Presiding Officer Labour Court, Himachal Pradesh, Shimla

Case No 18/82

Karam Singh, Drillman Petitioner.

Versus

M/s Prem Sagar & Sons, Gun Factory, Mandi.
.. .. . Respondents

Shri P. S. Dogra, Authorised Representative of the Petitioner.

Shri V.K. Gupta, Authorised Representative of the respondents.

AWARD

The parties informed me that a compromise has been arrived at and that in view of the compromise, it has been agreed that the petitioner workmen will be paid a sum of Rs. 6,000/- by the respondent Management in full and final settlement of all his claims including the present dispute covered by the reference made to this court. The order of termination of the services of the petitioner will be maintained. It is specifically agreed that this order of termination will not be read by anybody against the work and conduct of the petitioner and it will not operate as a stigma. The respondent management will make the payment of Rs. 6,000/- within one month of this compromise.

I have examined these terms of compromise and I find that these terms are legal and valid. The compromise is accepted and recorded. The award is made in view of the terms of the compromise. The petitioner will be paid a sum of Rs. 6,000/- within one month of today. This order of termination is maintained. However, it will be clarified that his termination will not be read adverse to the interest of the petitioner by anybody including his future employer. The copy of this award may be sent for publication and one copy each may be supplied to the parties. The parties will bear their own costs of these proceedings.

S. S. KANWAR,
Presiding Officer,
Labour Court.

Before the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Himachal Pradesh, Shimla

Case No. 127/83

S/Shri Devinder Singh, Jagmohan Singh, Balbir Singh, Mohinder Singh, Satya Pal, Gurdev Singh, Badri Lal and Suresh Kumar. ... Petitioners.

Versus

M/s Ranger Breweries, Ltd., Mehatpur, Una (H.P.) ... Respondents.

Shri Pyare Lal Beri, Authorised Representative of the Petitioner.

Shri Sunit Madhok, Authorised Representative of the respondent.

AWARD

The parties have arrived at a settlement out of Court. In accordance with the compromise, it is stated that the termination of the services of the following five persons will stand and the order of termination will not be revoked so far as they are concerned:

1. Devinder Singh.
2. Jagmohan Singh.
3. Satya Pal.
4. Gurdev Singh.
5. Badri Lal.

It is further stated that the order terminating the services of the following three workmen will stand revoked and quashed and set aside. They will be entitled to all the service benefits except the back wages.

1. Suresh Kumar.
2. Balbir Singh.
3. Mohinder Singh.

In view of this compromise and with the consent of the parties, the order terminating the services of the aforesaid five persons is maintained and this order terminating the services of remaining three employees viz. Suresh Kumar, Balbir Singh and Mohinder Singh is set aside and quashed. These three employees will be deemed to be in services and entitled to all the service benefits including seniority, provident fund, leave, increments etc. etc., as if they had been in service in spite of the termination of their services. However, they will not be entitled to any back wages. These three workmen will report for duties within one week of the passing of this order answering this reference. The respondent will take them in service if and when they report for duty and will allow them all the service benefits except the back wages as mentioned above.

I have examined the terms of compromise. These are valid and legal. The compromise is, therefore, accepted and with the consent of the parties, this award is made. The same be sent for publication in the Gazette. The parties are left to back their own cost of these proceedings.

Before the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Himachal Pradesh, Shimla

Case No. 134/83

Jung Bahadur.

... Petitioner.

Versus

M/s Ranger Breweries, Mehatpur, Una (H. P.) ... Respondents.

Shri Pyare Lal Beri, Authorised Representative of the Petitioner.

Shri Sunit Madhok, Authorised Representative of the respondent.

AWARD

The parties have arrived at a compromise. According to the compromise, the petitioner will join the services and the order terminating his services will stand revoked. The petitioner will be entitled to all the service benefits except the back wages, by the respondent management.

I have examined the terms of compromise and have heard the Authorised Representatives of the parties. These terms of the compromise are legal and valid. The compromise is, therefore, recorded.

With the consent of the parties and in view of the terms of the compromise, the impugned order terminating the services of the petitioner is quashed and set aside. The petitioner will be entitled to all the service benefits including continuity of service, increments, leave Provident Fund etc. etc., except the wages for the period, he has not been able to work because of the termination of his services. The petitioner will report for duty within a week and the respondent management will take him back in service and allow him all the benefits of service as mentioned above. The parties are left to bear their own costs. The copy of this award may be sent for publication.

.. Respondent.

Petition under section 12 of the H. P. Road Side
Land Control Act, 1968.

Whereas it has been made appear to me through the report of Assistant Engineer (B & R), H.P. P.W.D., Sub-division Nahan, dated 15-3-1983 that you have started construction work of Factory along the side of Kala-Amb, Trilokpur Road within the controlled width of the said road at Johro at R.D.I./590 without obtaining any permission which is the clear violation of the provisions of the H. P. Road Side Land Control Act, 1968.

Whereas the notices have been issued to the said respondent several times but could not be serve' on him so far. In such circumstances it is felt that the said respondent cannot be served upon through ordinary process of service except making publication of this notice in some popular publication.

Therefore, I, Arun Kumar, Collector, Nahan Sub-
